Assistant General Counsel

Copyright Protection

*OGC Has Reviewed*

1. Pursuant to our telephone conversation of 4 August 1949 regarding copyright protection for certain drawings, I have drafted herewith a possible form of release which can be used in connection with your project.

2. The blank on the first line should be filled in with the name of the Contractor, who presumably in this case is the artist who made the drawings and who is thereafter referred to in the release as the Contractor. The blank in the second line and subsequent blanks should be filled in with the name of the recipient. I understand that in this case the name of the recipient would be that of a cut-out rather than the name of a Government Agency.

3. If this office can be of any further assistance to you in this matter, kindly call us.
